For the purposes of this indemnification, Consultant specifically and expressly waives any immunity granted under the Washington Industrial Insurance Act, Title 51 RCW. This waiver has been mutually negotiated and agreed to by the parties. Consultant further agrees to require its consultants, subconsultants, and suppliers and their consultants, subconsultants, and suppliers to similarly indemnify and hold Consultant harmless and waive immunity under Title 51 solely for the purposes of this indemnification.

Consultant shall designate a qualified and responsible employee while on Cascade's property whose duty shall be to coordinate the activities of its employees and subcontractors. The Consultant and its subcontractors shall comply with the Federal Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (OSHA), including all revisions, amendments and regulations issued thereunder, and the provisions of the Washington Industrial Safety Act of 1973 (WISHA), including all revisions, amendments and regulations issued thereunder by the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries. The WISHA regulations shall apply, without limitation, to all operations. In case of conflict between any such requirements, the more stringent regulation or requirement shall apply. There is no acceptable deviation from these safety requirements, regardless of practice in the construction industry. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Cascade nor Consultant shall not be responsible for job site safety or their safety of others not employed by them. Accordingly, where Consultant's subcontractor will perform any work, construction, alteration, repair, maintenance, or improvement on property owned by Cascade, the Subconsultant Agreement shall require that subcontractor designate a qualified and responsible employee while on Cascade's property whose duty shall be to supervise plant safety, project safety, prevention of fires and accidents and the coordination of subcontractor's activities as shall be necessary.

If subconsultants (if allowed by Article IV of this Agreement) are utilized, Consultant will require these terms in all Subconsultant Agreements.

XIX. SUSPENSION OF AGREEMENT

Cascade reserves the right to suspend this Agreement at any time, with or without cause, by giving ten (10) days prior written notice to Consultant. The time for completion of the remaining Scope of Services shall be extended by the number of days the Scope of Services are suspended by Cascade, unless both parties can mutually agree upon a new completion time. In the event the period of suspension exceeds ninety (90) days, the terms of this Agreement shall be subject to renegotiation; provided, however, that if such renegotiation of a mutually acceptable replacement contract has not occurred within one hundred eighty (180) days after suspension ("Renegotiation Period"), then either Party may terminate this Agreement upon ten (10) days prior written notice, provided further, that the failure to renegotiate this Agreement within the Renegotiation Period shall not be construed as a breach of this Agreement by either Party. Consultant shall be entitled to receive just and equitable compensation for any satisfactory Scope of Services completed prior to the date of suspension.

XX. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

- A. Termination for Default. Either Party shall have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate this Agreement, (i) on ten (10) days written notice, in the event the other Party's service or performance materially fails to conform to the requirements of this Agreement.

- B. Termination for Convenience. Cascade may terminate this Agreement for convenience upon providing Consultant with seven (7) days written notice. Any right of convenience termination shall be in addition to, not in replacement of, any and all rights and remedies a Party may have for breach of the Agreement by the other Party.
- C. In the event of either default or convenience termination, all finished or unfinished reports, or other material prepared by Consultant pursuant to this Agreement, shall be provided to Cascade. Consultant shall be entitled to receive only such compensation as is allowed under this Agreement for any satisfactory Scope of Services completed prior to the date of termination and shall not be paid any costs, fees, markups or profit on the terminated part of the Agreement. In the event the Agreement terminates prior to completion of the Scope of Services, Cascade may require, in its sole discretion, Consultant to complete such analyses and records as may be necessary to place its files in order ("Wind Up Activities"). The additional time for Wind Up Activities shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the total time expended on the completed portion of the Scope of Services prior to the effective date of such termination. Consultant shall thereupon be compensated for the completed portion of the Scope of Services terminated on the basis of work actually performed prior to the effective date of termination, plus the work required for Wind Up Activities up to the limit specified above. Termination of the Agreement whether for default or convenience shall not negate or eliminate Consultant's obligations under Sections III, IV, VI, X, XII, XIII, XXI and XXIV of this Agreement all of which shall survive any such termination.
- D. Return of Records. On termination of this Agreement, Consultant will consult with Cascade's Representative about whether pertinent records should be returned. If requested, Consultant will deliver to Cascade all records, reports, data memoranda, notes, models or publications whether electronic or hard-copy, equipment and supplies of any nature, and receipts for any and all billing made to Cascade that are in possession or under control of Consultant, prepared or acquired in the course of the contract with Cascade. Further, Consultant agrees not to keep or withhold such information or data, or reproductions of such information or data that relate to the business activities of Cascade or to parties in a contract relationship with Cascade. Alternatively, if the return of records and equipment or supplies is not requested, Consultant agrees to retain these items for three (3) years after the completion of all work or Service under this Agreement.

If subconsultants (if allowed by Article IV of this Agreement) are utilized, Consultant will require these terms in all Subconsultant Agreements.

XXI. GOOD FAITH NEGOTIATION / MEDIATION

As a condition precedent to filing suit on any dispute between the Parties arising under or relating to this Agreement, the Parties shall attempt to resolve the dispute through good faith negotiation. If the dispute cannot be resolved through good faith negotiation within thirty (30) days of the commencement of such negotiations, the Parties shall hire an independent, trained and mutually acceptable mediator to mediate the dispute. If the Parties cannot agree upon a mediator within ten (10) days, either party may petition a judge of the Superior Court of King County to appoint such a mediator. The cost of the mediator will be shared equally by the Parties. The mediation shall be conducted in Bellevue, Washington or Seattle, Washington as determined by Cascade.

XXII. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

This Agreement shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their successors and assigns, except as otherwise set forth in Section XXV(G) of this Agreement.

XXIII. ADDITIONAL WORK

Cascade may desire to have Consultant perform work or render services in connection with the Project other than those Scope of Services provided for by the express intent of this Agreement. Any such work or services shall be considered as additional work, supplemental to this Agreement.

Authorized additional work will be compensated for in accordance with a written supplemental or new contract between Consultant and Cascade.

Cascade shall not be responsible to pay and Consultant shall not be entitled to receive compensation for any Additional Service unless such Additional Service is expressly approved by the Cascade prior to the rendering of such Service by the Consultant. The Consultant is responsible to notify Cascade if Cascade asks for the performance of any service or work which Consultant believes is beyond the Scope of Services prior to the performance of such allegedly Additional Service. Failure to provide such notice and/or to obtain approval of Cascade for such Additional Service shall at cascade's sole option be deemed a waiver of the Consultant's right to claim for payment for such Service.

XXIV. CONFIDENTIALITY

Except as directed by Cascade, Consultant shall not release or publish any information, reports or documents relating to Scope of Services performed under this Agreement without the express written consent of Cascade.

Consultant has a special duty to Cascade to maintain confidentiality of documents, information and records that are unknown to the general public and are provided by Cascade, come to Consultant's attention, or under Consultant's control.
